Biographical Note

The Noble family was from Gouverneur, New York (St. Lawrence County). Harvey H. Noble and Edna Wood Noble had three children: Katherine L. Noble, Robert N. Noble and Edward J. Noble (born August 8, 1882). Harvey ran a coal, wood and building supply business and served as an agent for the Rome and Watertown Railroad. Robert attended Purdue University and studied engineering and Edward attended Yale. Katherine taught school in Weedsport and married Alger Conger. Both men were involved with the Lifesaver Candy Company and Edward was well known for his philanthropy through which several rural hospitals were built. Edward served as a member of the Board of Trustees at St. Lawrence University from 1934 until his death on December 28, 1958.

The collection consists of letters written to Harvey and Edna by their children while in college and as young adults beginning to make their way in the world. Included are Edward's letters from San Francisco at the time of the 1906 earthquake. Also included is family memorabilia: photographs, memorabilia of Yale and Purdue, financial papers, and travel guides

Scope & Content

This collection contains letters and memorabilia of the Noble Family of Gouverneur, New York. The letters were written between 1867 and the mid-1930's, the bulk were written between the turn of the century and 1920. Harvey H. Noble and Edna Wood Noble had three children: Katherine L. Noble, Robert N. Noble and Edward J. Noble. Harvey ran a coal, wood and building supply business and served as an agent for the Rome and Watertown Railroad in Gouverneur. Rob attended Purdue University and studied engineering and Edward attended Yale University. Ultimately, both men were involved with the Lifesaver Candy Company which was then situated in Port Chester, N.Y. Edward J. Noble is well known for his philanthropy, through which several small rural hospitals were built to serve the residents of Jefferson and St. Lawrence Counties. He also donated heavily to St. Lawrence University.

The source of the letters and memorabilia appear to be Harvey H. and Edna Noble. Most of the letters are to them from their children. Rob and Ed wrote most often, with Rob being the more prolific. Many of the letters were written while the children of Harvey and Edna were in college or were young adults beginning to make their way in the world. For the most part the subjects of the letters are mundane. Their significance lies in their testimony to the importance of family life for some during the early years of this century. This fact is repeatedly reinforced in the common greeting used by both Robert and Edward Noble, "My Dear Home". Another attribute of these letters is that they reflect the affection of the Noble children for Northern New York.
