BIOGRAPHICAL

Lucia Millham (Mrs. Newton Millham) from Glen Cove, New York was the former Lucia Pink of Kew Gardens. In 1932 she graduated from St. Lawrence University, Canton, New York.

This unprocessed collection contains correspondence dating from 1798 until 1892, with most letters are from the Hazelton (Haselton) family. Other items included are a stockholder meeting notice of the Potsdam and Watertown Railroad Company (1853), pamphlet on Hon. William Kelly (Democratic Candidate for Governor of State of New York), deed between Louisa Olin and S. W. Heaton, the "Constitution of Little York Universalist Society in the Town of Fowler", and an academic year booklet from Townshend Academy in Townshend, Vermont. St. Lawrence University received this collection in 1993.
