(This is a German translation of # 72.) There is doubt as to Reuwich being the printer, also as to its having been printed in Mainz.

A number of these leaves are from books that are undated, (As are the majority printed prior to 1480,) others give neither town nor printer; however, these important features have been carefully checked with Hain, Stillwell, and the Gesamtkatalog der Wiegend... drucke, and listed accordingly.

Wherever a price is given, this is the price asked for a complete copy in Lathrop Harper's Catalogue of Incunabula issued twenty years.

 Indicates possibility of some other printer, place and date.
