Biographical note

John Stebbins Lee and his son, John Clarence Lee both served as Presidents of St. Lawrence University.

John Stebbins Lee (1820-1902) was born in Vernon, Vermont and was educated at Amherst College, graduating in 1841. He became a respected minister in the Universalist church and held teaching positions and pastorates in New Hampshire and Vermont. J.S. Lee married Elmina Bennett (d. 1903) in 1848. In 1859, he moved his young family from Vermont to Canton, beginning teaching duties at the fledgling St. Lawrence University in Latin and Greek. It was during this time, through 1868, that J.S. Lee also took on administrative duties, making him the first President of the University. In 1868, he was granted a leave of absence for the purpose of travel and research. He travelled over 20,000 miles during this time through Europe, North Africa and the Holy Land. Following his return to Canton, Dr. Lee resumed teaching in Ecclesiastical History and Biblical Archeology at the Theological School for many years. He also wrote two books based on his travels, Nature and Art in the Old World, or Sketches of Travel in Europe and the Orient, and Sacred Cities: Narrative, Descriptive, Historical. Throughout his life, J.S. Lee was active in the Universalist ministry, preaching in local churches and various churches during his travels throughout New England.

John Clarence Lee (1856-1940) attended local schools and entered St. Lawrence in 1872, graduating with an A.B. degree in 1876. After a short stint teaching sciences at a boarding school in Massachusetts, J.C. Lee earned another bachelor's degree from Harvard in 1878 and a Masters Degree from SLU Theological School in 1880. He was ordained into the Universalist clergy in 1881 and held pastorates in Perry, NY and St. Albans, VT. In 1884, J.C. Lee accepted a teaching position at Lombard University in Illinois, eventually becoming President for a short while before resigning to be Vice President. He married Helena Crumett (1867-1962) in 1889. In 1895, Clarence was awarded an honorary doctoral degree from SLU and a year later became the University's 5th president. In 1900, J.C. Lee leaves Canton to become pastor at the Universalist Church of the Restoration in Philadelphia, PA, a position he held for 19 years. Clarence finished his preaching career at the Independent Christian Church in Gloucester, MA, retiring from fully active ministry in 1929. In retirement, Clarence and Helena travelled and he worked in ministry a couple more years. He died in September 1940 in Cambridge, MA. Helena Lee travelled overseas on two separate occasions (1893-94 and 1912) and was an author and lecturer.

Scope and Content

The Lee Family papers consist mainly of personal correspondence roughly spanning the years 1840 to 1957. The majority of the letters are from the 1870's through the 1910's and are mainly correspondence between family members. A few of the letters are personal or business correspondence between the Lees and people outside the family, including letters having to do with both men's duties at St. Lawrence. Also contained in the collection are numerous photographs, sermons prepared by both J.S. and J.C. Lee, and other ephemera.

Provenance

This collection was donated by John Lee Wiegand, grandson of John Clarence Lee and great-grandson of John Stebbins Lee, in 2011.

Genealogical note

John Stebbins and Elmina Lee had five children; Leslie, John Clarence, Frederic, Gertrude and Florence. John Clarence and Helena Lee had five children; Cuthbert, Dorothy, Constance, Janet and Roland.
